

LESSON 9

He Is My Beloved Son

I. What children should understand:

1. Conviction

- Jesus received baptism from John the Baptist at Jordan. During baptism, God revealed that Jesus is His Beloved Son.
- We become God's children through baptism.

2. Attitude

- We should be thankful to God who gives us the grace to become children of God through baptism.
- We must live a life appropriate for children of God.

3. Habit

- Do not lose the rights we received through baptism by sin.
- We must praise and worship the God who gave us the right to be called as children of God.

II. Teaching aids:

- Holy Bible, Map (River Jordan, Holy place), pictures.

III. Presentation of the lesson:

Allowing students to share experiences of the celebrations of baptism connect to the contents of lesson. Stress on the fact that baptism gives us the right to be called as children of God.
